Re: Myriam Israel

The Citigroup Private Bank, one of the largest private banking businesses in the world, provides personalized wealth management services for clients through its nearly 470 private bankers and 290 product specialists in more than 30 countries.

Myriam Israel was employed in the Tel-Aviv office of the Citigroup Private Bank from Decemeber 2002 to August 2006. In these almost 4 years, Myriam was a valued employee that fulfilled the role of Office Manager in a highly satisfactory manner. She was always professional and extremely dedicated. She had a good grasp of our business and was an excellent team player, always looking to take on additional responsibility.

Myriam is a self-starter, has interesting ideas and takes initiative. She is also diligent, efficient and conscientious. I believe she will be a good addition in any company she decides to work for in the future.

Yours sincerely,

To whom it may concern;

Myriam Israel has served as my personal assistant during the year of 2001.

She has a pleasant personality, communicates well with clients and promptly understands the job requirements.

She operated without difficulties under pressure and has performed her tasks in a most satisfactory manner. She has a quick grasp of new data and within a short time knew all the details of my work.

Regrettably, she had to leave her job and I wish her luck in her new assignment.

Letter of recommendation

I would hereby like to express my appreciation of Myriam's many skills and performances.

Her role required managing relationships with suppliers and companies abroad, promoting and monitoring development projects, managing the company's travel system and export area.

Her being multi-lingual and a multi-tasker has helped us a lot in introducing ourselves in a smooth way to for us so far undeveloped markets.

I strongly recommend her as a dedicated worker, who completes all tasks with great devotion and brings a new perspective on the organization and I'm sure she will be maximizing the potential of any new role she takes on.

I am confident that she will succeed in her new job and that she will be an added value in every area she chooses.

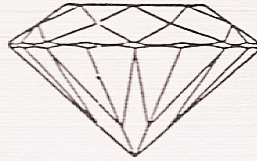

I wish her good luck for the future.
